1 Introduction

1.1 What is I-Personalized Annual Diary

Every year, as we approach the end of the year, we tend to see a barrage of annual diaries and calendars flooding the market in anticipation of the new year. Annual Diaries especially are pushed to the forefront in bookstores and round up the list of company stationery that needs to be printed. In fact, most annual diaries in the market nowadays are Personal Organizers which form the basic must-have for any self respecting working individual. Many companies or large corporations spend a tidy fortune to print their own complimentary Annual Diary which carries information on the company prominently printed in the first few pages. Company diaries are now a standard issue with many organizations as customers, partners, clientele or staff have come to expect a copy at the dawn of the new year.

These Annual Diaries are essentially generic items which differ only in their overall look and feel, but more often than not contain standardized information such as a calendar for the year, a page for recording personal particulars and contact numbers while also making allowance for personal planning pages. In view of the fact that these diaries are used by numerous individuals, why not consider customizing these items so as to make it more personal?

We at e-BaZi have received tremendous response and positive testimonies on the accuracy of our online Premium Report, which provides a comprehensive insight into the important aspects of your life covering personality, love, career and relationships with loved ones or even feng shui. Many of our loyal clients have reverted to us requesting an 'online personalized daily luck report' to assist them in better planning, setting appointments and making judgment-decisions on a daily basis.

In response to these requests, BaZi Master Richard Tan started formulating certain ideas and concepts to cater to this niche market, especially those seeking online personalized information. He also conducted extensive research on this matter before putting it together in the form of a personalized annual diary which uses one's birth data for diagnosing and forecasting personalized information on a daily basis.

In order to supplement the normal contents of an annual diary, such as a yearly calendar, we introduce and incorporate certain important personalized information into the calendar - something very unique to this online service. Our online Personalized Annual Diary is based on one's personal birth data and place of birth, revealing not only one's destiny in relation to personality, romance and career, but also on the pattern of one's daily luck. Our forecast is based on the ruling elemental influence on each day, being moderated by the luck pillar, year and monthly luck. For easy comprehension, the daily luck indices are categorized into one of the five categories, namely excellent, good, mixed, poor or caution.

Our Online Personalized Annual Daily is based on the Chinese metaphysic system called BaZi or Four Pillars of Destiny. This system is very unique as it categorizes human beings into 12.96 million individuals and states that it takes 240 years for an identical destiny to be repeated. It is based on the solar system and each year, month, day and hour are represented by two of the 5 basic elements, one for the heavenly stem and one for the earthly branch. The state of one's luck is affected by the elemental influence for the period concerned. It differs from the Chinese Almanac or Tung Shu commonly used by the Chinese which only provides generalized advice for the day. Our Online Personalized Annual Daily contains important dates where one could experience a windfall, romance/dating and also dates where one has to be extra cautious. All these extra information is very personalized and can be referred to frequently as a guide in our daily endeavors. More importantly, what's amazing is its near perfect accuracy.

2 Personality, Romance and Profession

2.1 Personality and Character

Dependable and fickleness is the best description of you. You are bright and usually extremely, biting funny. You are likely artistic and can be good with your hands. You like gossiping and are curious about everyone you meet. It is rare that you divulge information on yourself unless asked. You are also instinctive and have the capacity to laugh at yourself. Eloquent and good at foreign languages, you can also imitate well and pick up nuances easily. You have a kind of jaundiced view of other people and how they lived and like to put down other people whom you disapprove, or whom you find them silly or ridiculous.

You have a grandeur, strong and impressive appearance. You like status quo and always like to be admired and try to upkeep such image dearly. As a result of such premise, it is difficult for you to sustain such image. A determined and firm person you are also stubborn once you set your mind on something. You are quite prepared to take risks and can get jealous easily.

You are a thoughtful, good-humored and sentimental person. A generous, highly moral and principled person, you strive to please people whom you know. You put complete trust in those you believed in and allow others to take advantage of you. You can make sacrifices or readily pay at all cost for the sake of keeping peace when harassed. You can be most devoted to those whom you love or care for. For your good and compassionate nature, you always inherit money or help once you are in need from unlikely source.

A more rational and sensible person, you can face reality without easily fallen to self-pity. Your main priority in life is to make money after the age of thirty.

2.2 Romance and Compatibilities

You are a person who wants to live one-on-one with another. The chances you will remain as a bachelor is remote as somewhere, somehow, someone will come along. You will be attracted to people who appear to hold things together and you devote yourself to him/her. You will never stand in the way of an ambitious partner who wants to get successful. You are very concerned of what your loved one thinks and their respect for you and you secretly appreciated him/her in return. You are most compatible to Libra and Aquarius born in Rabbit/Pig years.

You are suave, manly, attractive and good looking which appeals to women. You like to make conquests but once you achieve what you want you get tired quickly in the affairs and soon you will be looking elsewhere for another conquest.

You are attracted to people especially those of the opposite sex and can get along well with them as they possess a lot of your favourable elements. In your case it is people who possess the excess or strong elements like Water and Earth

However, there are times you can be attracted to people who may not possess your favourable elements but he/she may be going through a Luck Pillar which are favourable elements of yours. Thus when this Luck Pillar has passed, then there will be a change of attitude or liking, which you have previously encountered. The changing elements will subconsciously affect your mood and feelings towards your loved ones. That explains why we often find that someone suddenly does not appear to be attractive anymore. Likewise, this might also happen to you when somebody who once loved you might find you no longer attractive.

You are likely to encounter romance or "flower of romance" during the Luck Pillar, year, month or even day where the period concerned is represented by the animal signs of Rat and Rooster.

2.3 Profession

Though you are a devoted, interesting and terrific employee you will never be satisfied with your boss. Although you do not want to be a boss, you cannot make a good one either. Since you are talented and artistic, you can perform well in an entertainment-related career.

You are not afraid to start in a low position and work hard to achieve your goal. Due to your determination and hard work it is very likely you will reach a high position, as you get older. Whatever fields you have chosen you are likely to end up in a front-man position in due course. You are suited for working in the civil service and if you are in the private sector you will work in the management of an organization or in the field of creativity. Your ambition is high and you like to do big things.

You are likely to adopt or are currently employed in a profession whereby the elements are dominant in your 4 Pillars of Destiny. The elements are Fire and Earth that are represented as follows:-

Fire	Energy, cooking, electricity, electronics, trading of stock market, commodities and futures, restaurants, entertainments and industry that is fire based.
Earth	Property, construction, mining, chemicals, building materials, pottery, glass, ceramic and clay and industry that is earth based.

However, you can do better if you can adopt a profession where it is represented by the elements which are favourable to you. Your favourable elements are Water and Earth. The profession or field representing them are as follows:-

Water	Shipping, beverages, dyeing, fishing industry and industry that is water based.
Earth	Property, construction, mining, chemicals, building materials, pottery, glass, ceramic and clay and industry that is earth based.
